MARTIN'S MARVELLOUS MELBOURNE · EST. 1835 – 2026

Corporate Tour Brochure

A two-hour guided walk through Melbourne's CBD — starting at Federation Square in front of the big screen Station, along Collins Street's boom-era arcades, past Parliament House, and into the laneways that made a city marvellous.

The Route

Stop	Street	What you'll hear
01	Swanston Street	Where Melbourne first drew a line on a map — 1835.
02	Flinders Street	The clocks under which every Melburnian has waited.
03	Collins Street	Boom-era banks, hidden arcades, a very Parisian dome.
04	Spring Street	Parliament, protest, and the Windsor's afternoon tea.
05	Exhibition Street	Gold rush theatres to lane-way espresso bars.
