MARTIN'S MARVELLOUS MELBOURNE TALKING SERIES

Yesteryear with Martin

A warm, engaging 60-minute presentation for retirement villages, aged-care residents and community groups — bringing to life the Melbourne, the identities and the great Australia your residents grew up in.

What Martin brings to your residents

| | |
|---|---|
| Duration | 60 minutes (2-hour extended session also available) |
| Setting | Come to your venue · lounge, hall or activity room |
| Audience | 10 – 200 residents · seated presentation, no walking required |
| Style | Warm, dignified storytelling with photos and gentle Q&A |
| Perfect for | Weekly activity programs · Australia Day · Anzac Day · reminiscence th |

Stories & topics

• Great Melbourne identities — from Sir John Monash to Dame Nellie Melba, from Squizzy Taylor to Ron Barassi.
• Landmarks of a marvellous city — the Cup, the clocks, the Windsor's afternoon tea, the trams that rattle on.
• Australia of yesteryear — post-war migration, the milk bar and the corner pub, Sunday roasts and country dances.
• Melbourne at war — home-front stories, the Anzac spirit, the letters home.
• Sport & song — Bradman, the Melbourne Cup, Slim Dusty and the songs everyone knew.

A free visit for your residents

| | |
|---|---|
| 60-minute presentation | Free of charge · perfect for a Tuesday afternoon activity |
| 2-hour extended session | Free of charge · for a longer afternoon of stories |
| Included | Travel within Metro Melbourne · photos & visual aids · Q&A |
| Extras | Custom themes on request · Anzac / Australia Day tie-ins |

How to book

Online: mmmwt.com.au/yesteryear — request your free talk in a minute.
By phone: call or text Martin on 0422 007 703.
By email: Mmmwt35@gmail.com — Martin will call you back within 24 hours to lock in the date and chat about your residents' interests.